The school district consists of two elementary schools, one middle school, and one high school. The elementary school located in Ridgeway consists of a K-4 single section program and a 5th grade center. Enrollment in the Ridgeway Elementary School is approximately 184 students. The Dodgeville Elementary School consists of a PreK-4 program housing approximately 412 students. The Dodgeville Middle School consists of grades 6-8 with an approximate enrollment of 264. The Dodgeville High School consists of grades 9-12 with approximately 419 students. Dodgeville is a community of 4,000 people. It is the corporate headquarters for Lands' End. It is viewed as the gateway to the tourist area of Wisconsin. House on the Rock and Gov. Dodge State Park provide activities for 1,000,000 tourists annually. Ridgeway is eight miles east of Dodgeville and has a population of 650. Dodgeville is influenced by its proximity to Madison, Wisconsin and Dubuque, Iowa. There is a very successful regional hospital located in Dodgeville, and it is viewed by its residents as an outstanding community for the rearing of a family, shopping, and enjoying retirement. Ridgeway is becoming closer to Madison as the highway system continues to improve. As a result, Ridgeway is viewed by many people employed in Madison, as a desirable place to live and grow. The Dodgeville School District provides a comprehensive curriculum for its students, incorporating the inclusive model within its special and regular education programs. There is a comprehensive co/extra curricular program for the middle and high school students, and the participation level is over 80%. The Dodgeville School District is characterized by its commitment to excellence, enthusiastic students and staff, and a mutual respect for each other. | | |
